

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Series preface	x
1 Introduction	1
Gita Steiner-Khamsi and Alexandra Draxler
2 Experimenting with educational development: international actors and the promotion of private schooling in vulnerable contexts	16
Antoni Verger, Adrián Zancajo and Clara Fontdevila
3 Advocacy as core business: new philanthropy strategies in Brazilian education policy-making	39
Marina Avelar
4 Private participation in the education of Syrian refugees: understanding the roles of businesses and foundations	52
Zeena Zakharia and Francine Menashy
5 Allies and competitors: private schools and the state in China	68
Barbara Schulte
6 Unfair competition: exploring state-funded low-fee private schools' logics of action in Buenos Aires	85
Mauro C. Moschetti
7 From billionaires to the bottom billion: who's making education policy for the poor in emerging economies?	106
Carole Anne Spreen and Sangeeta Kamat
8 From low-cost to low-fee: BRAC's transition to a for-profit private school model in Bangladesh	131
Emily Richardson

9	Death by a thousand cuts: privatizing public education in the USA Joanne Barkan	148
10	Public–private partnerships in education assessed through the lens of human rights Mireille de Koning	169
	Index	189